DESCRIPTION

Eames DCM Chair by Charles + Ray Eames for Vitra.

Designed by Charles and Ray Eames in 1945, DCM stands for Dining Chair Metal. The Eames often varied their chair designs by combining one seat shell with different bases. Accordingly, from the very outset, Plywood Group was optionally available with a chromed tubular steel frame which lent the design a greater sense of lightness and created an exciting tension between its two contrasting materials.

Herman Miller has the sole license for the Charles and Ray Eames collection in the U.S. and the Far East. Therefore the export of these products from the UK to the U.S. is not possible.
