

EM Table HPL, 1950

Designer: Jean Prouvé

Manufacturer: Vitra

£2,950

DESCRIPTION

EM Table HPL by Jean Prouvé for Vitra.

At the beginning of the 1950s, Jean Prouvé developed the EM Table for the 'Maison-Tropicque' project. The table, defined by his design right down to the very last detail, follows Prouvé's typical aesthetics of necessity. It illustrates the force path and the static connections in a way that is otherwise only featured in engineering constructions.

The EM Table can be ideally combined with Prouvé's Standard chairs, but also with various other chairs.
