

Rayonnage Mural shelf, 1936

Designer: Jean Prouvé

Manufacturer: Vitra

£1,350

DESCRIPTION

Rayonnage Mural shelf by Jean Prouvé for HAY.

First conceived in 1936 for the École Nationale Professionnelle located in the French city of Metz, the Rayonnage Mural is one of the many wall bookcases designed by Jean Prouvé during the first half of the 20th century.

The two painted bent sheet metal vertical wall brackets have a streamlined form, reminiscent of the rudder of an aircraft or ship. The wall brackets come with precise slits to fit the solid wood shelves which can be inserted easily to form a practical shelf.

The vertical bracket is available in four different colours. The wooden horizontal shelves come in a choice of light or dark oak
