DESCRIPTION

Chipperfield Block Cushion by Wallace Sewell.

The Chipperfield cushion by Wallace Sewell takes its cues from the design philosophy of David Chipperfield, a celebrated architect of the 20th century who often sourced inspiration from Japanese design. This felted finish cushion combines a calming array of soft neutrals and monochromes, invoking feelings of serenity and peace within its environment.

Please note: The cushions are unique, and when supplied online, you will receive a one-off of random selection. They may be individually selected in-store or via consultation with our in-store team.

DIMENSIONS

50w x 50cmh

MATERIALS

Woven with 100% merino lambswool and felted for added softness.

Sheep wool filled cushion insert included.
