

William Modular Sofa, 2010

Designer: Damian Williamson

Manufacturer: Zanotta

£15,318

DESCRIPTION

William Modular Sofa by Damian Williamson for Zanotta.

The William modular sofa features aluminium alloy feet, a steel frame and elastic straps for suspension. The William also features removable fabric or leather cover.

"Just like William: in five years, together with Zanotta, we have reached the complete collection, modern and elegant, offering a wide selection for any exigencies in terms of comfort in the living room. For example, you may have the upholstered seat without backrest, to sit on both sides and look vis-à-vis, as well as the possibility to join a small-table/shelf to the frame" Damian Williamson

As a part of the William range, the prices shown here are for the large left two-seat and small right three-seat option. Additional pieces can also be bought as separate units, or to add to an existing sofa. For all available compositions as well as other products in the William range, please see 'Product downloads'.
